The President at Richmond.

RICHMOND, June 2.—The President on his trip hither from Washington was accompanied by Secretary Seward, Postmaster General Randall, Col. William G. Moore, of the President's staff; Surgeon Basil Morris, United States attorney; Col. J. R. O'Brien, Col. A. H. Seward, United States army; Wm. S. Mitchell, F. L. Cushman, Geo. Mattingly, agent of the Potomac steamboat company, and Gen. R. O. Tyler. The last named was the Chief Quartermaster of the Second Military district, and was detailed by Gen. Sickles to act as escort. The party reached Fredericksburg at half-past eleven o'clock Saturday night. A large number of persons gathered at the station and greeted the President with cheers and called for a speech, but he merely thanked them for the manifestation of their respect, and shook hands with some of them at parting. At Ashland the party were met by about twenty persons, one of whom extended to the President a cordial welcome in their name, remarking that they were not far from the birth place of Henry Clay, and in a neighborhood made historic by Patrick Henry. The President, in response, said: "Gentlemen, accept my thanks for this compliment." On arriving at Richmond the President was met by Mr. Macfarland, President of the city council, and several other members of that body; Mayor Mayo and Ex-Mayors Saunders, Sturdivant and others. These gentlemen extended to him a cordial welcome, and invited him to accept of the hospitalities of the city of Richmond. The interview was rather informal but pleasant. The ladies in waiting conveyed the party to the Spotswood hotel, where they were accommodated with the best apartments. The President's chambers are those heretofore occupied by Jefferson Davis and subsequently by General Grant.

This morning the President, Secretary Stanton and Postmaster General Randall, accompanied by a committee of the city authorities, attended service at St. Paul's church, where the Rev. Dr. Minnegerode officiated. After returning to the hotel the President received a number of visitors, including a few ladies. The President and party this afternoon dined with the Mayor and Council at the hotel.

The President and party will leave to-morrow morning for Raleigh.

PETERSBURG, June 3.—On arrival here, the President and party were met by the Mayor and Council. The Mayor expressed the pleasure of the citizens in having them for their guests, and said that they would be much gratified if the party would, on their return trip, remain longer in Petersburg than they had on this occasion, in order that there might be an extension of hospitalities. The President expressed his thanks for the kind reception, and hoped that he might in the future be able to reciprocate.

News Items.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The Secretary of the Treasury has forbidden the publication of the weekly disbursements. The completed registration shows 9,792 whites and 8,212 blacks. Bulant, whose name was rejected on account of avoiding the draft, and tore out and attempted to swallow two pages of the register, has been jailed. Piser, a Richmond merchant, who escaped Confederate service, by furnishing a substitute, was refused registration. There is considerable excitement, and much dissatisfaction, but no trouble is apprehended on Monday.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The New York Herald has a special dispatch announcing the execution of Maximilian and his officers. The report is discredited at the State Department.

The State Department has received official information of Maximilian's unconditional surrender.

The total national bank circulation is $298,000,000.

Internal revenue receipts, to-day, $1,168,000. Total for the week, $7,741,000. Receipts for May, $15,971,000.

Custom receipts for the week ending May 25, $2,930,000.

Splendidly executed counterfeits on the Third National Bank of Philadelphia are in circulation.

Dacotah advices, of May 16, represent the Indians perfectly quiet on the Upper Missouri.

Correspondence between Jose Berge, Foreign Secretary of Paraguay, and Charles A. Washburn, American Minister at Asuncion, is published by the State Department. Brazil, the Argentine Republic and Oriental States reject the mediation of the United States in the Paraguay war. Berge's letter narrates continued aggressions on the part of Brazil. He announces the determination of the Paraguay people to save themselves by triumph, since the enemy persists in its efforts to prosecute the war with the malignity of demons.

NEW ORLEANS, June 1.—Hon. L. D. Campbell has received a letter from the United States Consul at Matamoros, confirming reports of the fall of Queretaro and the capture of Maximilian and his Generals. Mr. Marshall, Consul at Matamoros, has just arrived in town. He brings no later intelligence; he probably came on with his own despatches.

A letter has been received here by an Imperialist, dated Monterey, 21st, but it makes no mention of the capture of Maximilian, which is rather singular.

PARIS, May 29.—The Government has taken measures to greatly reduce the number of troops in the standing army. MADRID, May 29.—The Spanish fleet in the Pacific Ocean is to be materially strengthened.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—General Thomas' visit here has reference exclusively to Tennessee matters. Proclamations have been taken for prompt Federal action in case Brownlow's militia and the people quarrel.

The President leaves here on Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Storer and one private secretary. He will be absent about a week.

The Japanese Commissioners are negotiating for the purchase of the Confederate ram Stonewall.

Congressman Boutwell is going South on a speaking tour.

The Government expenditures for the quarter ending March 31, are $232,000,000; receipts $239,000,000. Internal revenue receipts to-day $516,000.

Advices from Motana indicate a sharp campaign against the Indians.

There is little hope at the State Department of Maximilian's safety.

RICHMOND, May 29.—The City Council have invited President Johnson to visit Richmond on his way to Raleigh.

A fight occurred yesterday at Danville between members of the United States Cavalry Corps and the negroes of Danville. Bricks and pistols were used, and the Cavalry Corps was driven out of town. Two were wounded on each side.

CHARLESTON, May 29.—Arrived—steamer Emily Souder, New York; brig A. Taylor, Boston; schooner Nellie Tarbox, Matanzas. Sailed—steamer Falcon, Baltimore.

SAVANNAH, May 26.—J. E. Hayes, proprietor of the Republican, fined and imprisoned for libel in March last, was yesterday released, by pardon of Gov. Jenkins.

NEW YORK, May 26.—A Valparaiso letter says the impression prevails that the United States is more friendly to Spain than to Chili and Peru, and it was probable the proposed mediation of this country would not be accepted.

The allied squadron was in port, and the good feelings between the Governments were restored.

Yokohama advices of March 29, say Gen. Van Valkenburg re-opened correspondence with the Japanese Government, regarding American claims for property destroyed in 1863.

CHARLESTON, May 29.—General Sickles, this evening, issued an order in the case of the negroes concerned in the recent street car riots, in view of the general good conduct of the colored population in trusting to the action of the authorities for the recognition and enforcement of their rights and privileges, all are released except Wm. Hunter and John F. Stewart, who, being charged with stoning the cars and resisting the police in the discharge of their duty, and inciting others to riotous conduct, are remanded for trial by the military commission. In the case of Stephen Calloun Smith, charged with mutilating the national flag, at the firemen's parade, April 27, the order says, the only extenuating circumstances is the prisoner's acknowledgment of guilt, coupled with his avowal that the act was done in a moment of undue excitement, and the expression of his sincere contrition for the offense; prominent and influential citizens having petitioned for Smith's pardon, representing that his offense receives no countenance in the community; and it appearing that the confinement already undergone by the accused, added to the condemnation of the community, will sufficiently admonish him of the consequences of his misconduct; it is ordered that he be discharged.

Arrived to-day—steamer Falcon, Baltimore; schooner Lizzie Tapley, New York. Sailed—steamer Everman, Philadelphia.

CHARLESTON, May 27.—Arrived to-day—Lebanon Myrover, New York; schooner Vnio, Philadelphia.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—John H. Surratt was brought into the Criminal Court to-day, to be tried for murder and conspiracy to kill President Lincoln. His brother Isaac had been brought from Texas, and was in the court room. The defense was ready for trial, but the United States was not; the latter presented that they had used due diligence, as yet had been unsuccessful in procuring attendance of four or five important witnesses.

A telegram has been received at the State Department, from New Orleans, the 26th, transmitting an official letter from Juarez, dated San Luis Potosi, 15, stating that Queretaro had fallen by force of arms, at 8 o'clock this morning. Maximilian, Mejia, Castillo and Miran are prisoners.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 27.—The will of Shubal Hutchins, a leading merchant of this city, who died last week, bequeaths $10,000 for the education and improvement of the negroes in the South.

NEW ORLEANS, May 27.—Advices from Brazil, via Galveston, say that a letter from the American Consul at Monterey confirms the capture of Maximilian. The reply of President Juarez to Minister Campbell recounts the grievances of his party at the hands of Maximilian. He justifies his previous executions, and declines to promise safety to Maximilian, in the event of his capture.

GALVESTON, May 27.—An attempt to collect taxes here levied during the war in Confederate currency, which would sacrifice the property of Union men, has called forth an order from Gen. Griffin, forbidding the collection of such taxes.

Judge Reeves, of the 9th District of Texas decides that negroes are not competent witnesses in the trial of white men.

Foreign News.

LOXON, May 26.—Notwithstanding declarations to the contrary, it is thought the Government will not carry into execution the death sentence of the Fenian prisoners.

PARIS, May 26.—The Presso, of this complaints that Prussia is strengthening the fortifications of Ros-tadt.

COPENHAGEN, May 26.—The Danish Government, it is said, has informed the foreign powers that the Prussian Government continues to disregard the obligations of the treaty of 1815, with regard to Schleswig.

DUBLIN, May 25.—If the Fenians are to be hung, the authorities expect reprisals on the part of the Fenians. The houses of the Judges and the Crown Council are guarded day and night, by armed policemen in citizen's dress.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 25.—Since the London conference, the Eastern question has assumed more importance. Efforts will be made to settle it. The United States offer to sell Russia the Miantonomah, a frigate and two new fast cruisers. The offer is likely to be accepted.

LONDON, May 27.—There is a question whether the death sentences of the Fenian convicts will be carried out or not. It engrosses public attention, and the press of England and Ireland generally urge that the sentences be commuted to imprisonment for life. It is said that Minister Adams will interpose to save McClure from the scaffold.

THE MILK IN THE COCONUT, OR THE REASON OF THE DISGUISE.—The Shelby (O.) Chronicle (Radical) has the following card:

"SHELBY, O., May 15, 1867. "HORACE GREELY—SIR: Will you have the kindness to reduce the club of Tribunes coming to Shelby, Ohio, (one) as I do not want your paper. Send it to some of your 'copperhead' friends. My reason for doing so is this: For one, I think a man that will bail Jeff Davis out ought not to be patronized by any man claiming to have loyal heart or the first drop of the blood of 1776' coursing through his veins. My opinion is, a man that would bail Jeff Davis would not hesitate to drink lager beer sitting upon Union grave stones. Stop my paper.

Yours, in disgust, W. A. FLANDERS. "P. S.—New York Tribune, Richmond Enquirer, Cincinnati Enquirer, Shelby and Banner, New York Tribune, Albany and Buena Vista please copy, and charge Jeff Davis, Greely & Co."

Thereupon the Ohio Statesman discourses as follows:

"This is not the first time W. A. Flanders, of Shelby, Ohio, became indignant at the conduct of Horace Greely, of New York. We recollect having seen an article in the Tribune several years ago ventilating Flanders' wine, manufactured from the Lincais wine plant, good for all kinds of disease, of excellent medicinal qualities, (&c.) &c., in the usual Yankee patent medicine style. Horace detected the cheat, and warned the people against the lun. bug. He broke up this Flanders' speculation in the 'wine plant,' and caused him to swear at Horace like the army in Flanders." Horace was independent. He didn't care about having his readers pay twenty-five cents per root for common rhubarb plants, even if Flanders did stop his paper, and he told the people so. Flanders consequently waited for an opportunity to take revenge upon Horace, and the opportunity came. He bailed out Jeff Davis, and Flanders stopped his paper! Won't Horace feel badly? This accounts for the milk in the coconut.—Here Flanders' gushing loyalty in the Shelby Chronicle. Oh, oh, Flanders."

POPULATION OF THE UNITED STATES.—From returns made under the supervision of Director Delmar, it appears that the total population of the thirty-seven States of the Union, in November and December last, was 34,100,255; and of the States and Territories together 34,505,882. In most of the Southern States there has been a decrease of population, in the Eastern a large increase. The results are supported in every instance by the State census of 1865, so far as taken. The comparison with the census of 1860 is as follows: Thirty-seven States, a few of which were then Territories, numbered 31,218,021 inhabitants, and the total in the States and Territories 31,443,321. The total increase since 1860 has, therefore, been 3,062,561, which, in view of the late extended conflict, demonstrates the extraordinary recuperative powers of the country.

WHY TEXAS IS CALLED THE "LONE STAR."—Mr. Smith was Provisional Governor of the embryo Republic, or State, or Territory of Texas. While acting as Provisional, it became necessary to send some official document to New Orleans. The gentleman who was to take the document insisted that it should have some kind of a seal. The Provisional Government had adopted none. Just then some one observed a five-pointed button on the Governor's old overcoat. It was cut of instant and used as a State seal. Arrived at New Orleans, the newspaper reporters, seeing the impression of the five-pointed brass button on the wax, made it an emblem for the Lone Star Republic.

The richest member of the Connecticut Senate is an Irishman, whose property is valued at $2,500,000, and whose daily income is $1,000. He made his money from an oil farm in Pennsylvania, which he purchased for $2,500.

Gen. Sherman has been obliged to abandon his proposed trip to the Mediterranean, his presence on the frontier being necessary during the prevalence of the Indian hostilities.

DEATH OF COL. C. J. ELLORD.—With much regret, we have to announce the death, at Greenville, of this eminent lawyer and Christian gentleman, Col. Ellord was taken sick on Sunday, the 19th inst., and died the following Saturday, the 25th inst., aged about forty-eight years. Col. Ellord was a very useful and practical citizen, and his death will be very much regretted by the people of Greenville, and a large number of friends throughout the State. Thus has our neighboring sister District had occasion, in the last three weeks, to deplore the loss of her eminent citizens, Carolina Spartan.

NAPOLÉON.—"Barleigh" the Paris correspondent of the Boston Journal, who is anti-French to a amusing degree, contradicts the stories of Napoleon's declining health. He says those who expect to find the Emperor a feeble and waning man will be disappointed. He seems to be in the prime of life and full vigor of health. He has none of that sleepy, drowsy look represented in pictures. His face is full of thought, and his eye, when he chooses to lift his head, is brilliant.

The New Orleans Crescent in a recent leader discusses the relations present and prospective of the West Indies to the United States, and predicts that ere long, Cuba will be ours; that when this country next shall offer one hundred millions of dollars for the gem of the Antilles, Her Catholic Majesty will pocket the money and part with her jewel.

A writer in Blackwood's Magazine, in discussing affairs in the United States, displays his knowledge of the history of this country in the following remarkable passage: "Gen. Jackson owed his elevation to having fought the British at New Orleans, and having fought with distinction in the war against Mexico!"

R. G. Barnwell and E. G. Bell, editors of De Bow's Review, announce a temporary suspension of its issue, in consequence of the death of its former editors and proprietors, the Messrs. DeBow. They assure subscribers that the magazine will not be allowed to perish, though the requirements of the law may make it necessary that it should be offered for sale, and with a view to this contingency, bids for the work are invited from those who are willing to continue its publication, with substantially the same principles and policy as have governed in the past conduct of the work.

Railroad men in California have decided to cover the cuts in the mountains to prevent their being filled up with snow in winter. According to the design adopted, the roofing will have a double support of stout timbers at the caves, and half-way between the caves and the peaked top, so as to be strong enough to suspend the weight of many tons of snow.

The Emperor of Austria is greatly alarmed about the fate of his brother Maximilian, and has instructed the Austrian Minister in Washington to enter into negotiations with Juarez with a view to saving Maximilian's life.

EMANCIPATION IN CUBA.—The project of abolishing slavery on the island of Cuba is openly mooted, and is likely to be accomplished at no distant period.

The Army and Navy Journal has an ingenious way of calling a man a liar. In speaking of Gen. Baker it describes him as "one of those decorative men who make it a point of honor never to let a story lose anything by passing through their artistic hands."

CORRECT ON.—The medal belonging to some member of the "Palmetto (S. C.) Regiment, of the Mexican war, is inscribed Shadrack Ready, and not Brady, as incorrectly printed in the Constitutionalist. Exchanges please correct.

The New York Journal of Commerce takes much encouragement from the fact that the three most prominent republican journalists, Greeley, Weed and Raymond, are advocating the cause of moderation.

DAVIS AND COWAN.—The New York Day Book is out in a strong article favoring the nomination of Jeff. Davis and Edgar Cowan as the Democratic candidate for President and Vice-President of the United States.

Gen. D. N. Couch, of Massachusetts, it is said, has been elected and accepted the presidency of a mining company that has recently purchased sixty square miles of mineral land in Virginia.

If the fireman of an engine were to propose to the engineer that he would raise steam each day with which to run the engine the day before, the engineer would have good reason to believe the fireman was demented.

We propose to run the engine of a livelihood. The money we earn is its steam, our customers its firemen.

To give daily revolutions to that engine, the steam must be forthcoming. We hope we will not have to regard our firemen as demented.
